By Associated Press.
PITTSBURG, June 4.—Evidence that anarchists responsible for bomb explosions at the home of Judge W. H. S. Thomson of the United States District court and W. W. Shray, chief inspector for the bureau of immigration Monday night were operating under orders from Russian radical headquarters at 133 15th street, New York, was in the hands of the police here today. According to an announcement this morning by Superintendent R. J. Alderdice, president of the local I. W. W. organization, who was arrested yesterday after a fight with detectives in a downtown office building, came to Pittsburg from New York two weeks ago at the instance of "Number 1001," William Haywood, president of the national I. W. W., according to Mr. Alderdice, bears the number 1001.

Johnson, who the police say is the directing genius of the bomb plot in this city, was held in jail today with a score of other alleged anarchists who were arrested yesterday and last night. Bail was refused in each case. In a partial confession made to the police last night Johnson said to have named a Cleveland man as the maker of the bombs exploded here. This man, whose name the police withheld, also is said to have operated under orders of the radical headquarters in New York and is believed to have gone to Chicago after the explosion here. A search for him was being made in that city today.

NEW YORK, June 4.—New York police have no evidence to support the theory of Pittsburg detectives that the anarchists responsible for yesterday's bomb explosion acted under orders of the Russian radical headquarters at 133 East 15th street, this city, according to a statement made at police headquarters today.

It was said that the house in question, which is known as "the Russian people's home," has been under constant surveillance since last March when it was raided and 164 persons were arrested. Four of these individuals were subsequently deported. Since that time the police say they have no evidence that the house was being used as the headquarters of the terrorists.

CHICAGO, June 4.—Police and government agents are investigating a mysterious explosion in a North Side street early this morning in which a large automobile was wrecked. Three sticks of dynamite and 50 feet of fuse were found in a vacant lot within several hundred feet of the wrecked motor car. No trace of the occupants of the car could be found.

The police declared that the license tags on the car had been issued to Cornelius T. Shea, former president of the Chicago Teamsters' union and prominent in organized labor circles 10 years ago. Shea is being sought by the police.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—That efforts of anarchists to create a reign of terror through destruction of life and property which had its climax in attempts on lives of prominent men in eight cities Tuesday night not only failed in its purpose but has resulted in action by organized government that is expected to wipe out the anarchists themselves was evident here today. Following public announcement last night by Attorney General Mitchell Palmer that the purposes of the Department of Justice are the same now as they were before was in turn followed by a statement telling of the creation of a new bureau by the department with William J. Flynn as its head and which will have as its paramount duty the crushing of the anti-government movement in this country. Agents of the federal government throughout the country and detective forces in this and scores of other cities today renewed with vigor their efforts to run down those responsible for Monday night's bomb explosions.

By Associated Press.
SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, June 4.—American marines have been landed at Punta Renes and Port Limon, Costa Rica, because of the revolution against the government, headed by General Tinoco, according to dispatches printed in newspapers here.

The revolution in Costa Rica has been going on for the past two months, but has been attracting considerable attention in Central American countries for the past four weeks. Forces said to have been recruited from political exiles formed hands along the Nicaraguan frontier near Lake Nicaragua and advanced southward, clashing on several occasions with forces commanded by Joaquin Tinoco, Costa Rican minister of war. The fighting has been restricted almost entirely to the mountainous country near the Nicaraguan border, although recently skirmishes farther south have been reported.

Toledo Automobile Works.

By Associated Press.
TOLEDO, Ohio, June 4.—Operations at the plant of the Willys-Overland Automobile company were at a standstill today as a result of the rioting last night in which two persons were shot to death and 17 injured.

The dead men, it is said, were not involved in the labor dispute and were never employed at the Overland plant. They were in the crowd which congregated about a fire station when discharged soldiers guarding the plant arrived in response to a riot call. Feeling in the neighborhood where the deaths occurred is running high. This is a locality populated by Poles. Police are apprehensive of further outbreaks today.

REGULATIONS ON*Acting Mayor Hoover Imposes

For Speeding.*PARKING IS RESTRICTED*Police Have Orders to See That Previous Threats of Arrest of Owners of Cars Left in Business Section of the City Are Promptly Carried Out.

The police will start an intensive campaign today or tomorrow against individuals who park their automobiles along the street curbs in the downtown business section for more than the 15 minutes allowed by the city ordinance. They will be taken into police court and every offender will be fined.

Councilman R. W. Hoover, who is acting as head of the police department in the absence of Mayor John Duggan, who is in a hospital in Pittsburg, said this morning he was going to do all in his power to see that the ordinance was enforced.

It is pointed out that the parking of cars on city streets is becoming a serious thing. The practice has been partly broken up at previous times, but when the campaign against offenders was not continued, violations of the traffic ordinance again became rampant.

Beginning at about 10 o'clock in the morning and throughout the day until practically the same hour at night between 15 and 20 cars can be found standing on Pittsburg street within the district where parking is prohibited. Some of these machines are even on the wrong side of the street.

In Pittsburg street, when a car stands on one side of the thoroughfare and another machine is on the opposite side, only one way traffic can be kept up, it being impossible for two machines to pass between the parked automobiles at once.

On West Crawford avenue automobile drivers are paying little attention to the law prohibiting them from passing street cars while loading or unloading passengers. For a time the police had drivers "educated" to stopping until the cars moved, but a number are getting back to their old habits.

Councilman Hoover included the use of cutouts and speeding in his order. Road tags which were printed more than two years ago will again be used to notify owners of machines which are left parked over the time limit to appear for a hearing, and if necessary, warrants will be sworn out for the arrest of those who persist in using noisy cutouts and making race courses of the city streets.

"I'll fine every one," said Councilman Hoover. "As long as I have the power I intend to see that the laws are obeyed."

The councilman carried out his threat to fine every offender when Arthur Latney was assessed $5 in police court this morning for speeding. He was arrested by Patrolman Rullin on information of the city stenographer that Latney went through the West Side at a speed of 35 miles an hour on Sunday evening.

Having started the crusade against car owners who do not obey the city laws, the councilman declared the "campaign" against them would continue until the practices were broken up. "They don't park cars on the streets in other cities," he said, "and they shouldn't be allowed to do it here."

The sports committee of the homecoming celebration has arranged a strong boxing card for the last day of the affair, July 9.

The semi-final bout will be between Roy DeSarders and Ray Pryor of Pittsburg. The fighters are lightweights. Two other preliminary bouts will be arranged later this week and announcement of them made.

The sports committee has secured the best possible card for the show, which will be put on at Fayette field. The fight will come off in the afternoon.

Many difficulties in arranging a good program have been encountered by the committee and several bouts previously arranged were cancelled by the fighters. Now, however, the committee has been notified that Champion Britton will meet Griffiths here.

GRADING BEGUN FOR PAVING OF ROAD TO DUNBAR*Dreams and Plans of Years of the Furnace Town Will Be Realized
Before End of Summer.

DUNBAR, June 4.—At last Dunbar township No. 1 is to have a piece of improved or permanent public road. For years this matter has been up and down the township and one in No. 1, and the improvements went to No. 2, and 3. Finally the people organized themselves and by pledging and giving support to a man who honestly promised to act with Township Supervisor Charles V. Hardy of this end in securing at least a measure of justice to No. 1, Thomas Kern was elected, and he is living up to his word. The road chosen for improvement is the Leisenring road from the west borough line to the state road on Hair's hill, a half mile.

Work was begun on the grading of this stretch yesterday morning. The contract provides for a concrete base with brick surface. It will probably take most of the summer to complete it. The road was closed yesterday morning and traffic directed to use the Morrell road or the Pauli hill road. Once completed Dunbar will have what it for many years has sought and needed—a dependable road out of town.

If the state improves the road from Logan's crossing via the Cross Keys school house to the North Union township line, connecting with the Dunbar road on Hair's hill, the people here will have a continuous improved road to both the cities of the county. This road will be of great benefit to the traveling public and especially to business men who have dealings with Dunbar people, and to the Connellsville business men especially, who have memories of delivery trucks swamped in the mud during the winter. The good work has been started and the people have great reason to rejoice.

DECISION BY THURSDAY ON GERMAN NOTES

There is reason to believe, according to a dispatch from Paris, that the council of four will reach a decision by Thursday as to the reply that will be made to the German counter proposals to the terms of peace. Allied experts are at work on the reply and meetings are being held in Paris today for the purpose of drafting memoranda to be submitted to the council of four. It is probable that this work is well under way.

Premier Clemenceau is understood to maintain firmly that there can be no important changes in the clauses of the treaty to which the Germans have entered their strongest objections. There are indications, however, of a strong under current of sentiment to meet the German offer of a definite sum of 100,000,000,000 marks as indemnity instead of the indeterminate sum that might be demanded under the terms as presented.

SAFETY ASPECTS OF CELEBRATION
ARE CONSIDERED*Plans For Protection of Public Outlined By Head of Department.*GRAND STAND SUGGESTED

Its Erection Would Do Much Toward Keeping People From Congested Streets, Committee is Told; Chattanooga Representatives Offer to Aid.

Suggestions for the safety of the public during the homecoming celebration July 6, 7, 8 and 9 were offered to the central committee at its weekly meeting at city hall last evening by C. G. Brehm, who will have charge of the safety end of the occasion. Mr. Brehm said that he had been instructed to attend the meeting personally and say that the Oliver-Snyder Steel company, by which he is employed, would be glad to donate his services during the celebration. He asked for an explanation of the program for the week, which was given him. He then offered some suggestions along the line of safety.

Pittsburg, Mr. Brehm explained, had erected a grand stand that would hold 50,000 people, which will mean just 50,000 people off the streets during the parade of the 329th Infantry. He said that it would be a good thing if there could be one built here for this celebration, as the more people there are in the grand stand the less people there will be on the streets. He said it was essential that the parade routes be mapped out and given publicity within the next few weeks so as to get them into the minds of the people, that they may see the parades from points nearer homes than the congested part of the city.

Mr. Brehm also suggested that the council regulate the speed limit for all automobiles and street cars at all times during the celebration. On parade day he said it would be wise to have the bands alternate with the playing of music so that all the music is not played in the downtown section and some is saved for the people on the outskirts. Policing the route of parade, he said, could be done by the boy scouts and firemen. Mr. Brehm plans to install a first-aid station, probably two, in the city and have ambulances, converted from trucks, serve the stations. He said that he had a good idea that the services of both doctors and nurses would be needed. He also said that it was essential that all merchants give up sidewalk space during the celebration as it would be needed for the people.

One of the most attractive of the early summer weddings was that of Miss Catherine M. Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Miller of Race street, and Earl Wood Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Henderson of the West Side, solemnized this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the home of the bride, Rev. Dr. E. B. Burgess, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, officiating, using the ring service. Only the immediate members of the two families and a few intimate friends were included in the guest list. As the bride and groom entered the parlor where the ceremony took place, Miss Jessie Harris played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. During the service, hymns were softly rendered. The bride wore a handsome gown of white georgette crepe and a corsage of roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss Lucille Cochran, and Miss Leona McPhail, Paul Miller and Dewey Miller, brothers of the bride, completed the bridal party. Following the ceremony a prettily appointed wedding dinner at which covers for 30 were laid, was served. Charming pink and green appointments prevailed, with pink roses and ferns forming the artistic decorations. The bride attended the city high school and is popular among her many friends. The bridegroom who is also well and favorably known is employed by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad company. At the conclusion of a two months' wedding trip to be spent at points of interest in Colorado and California, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson will return to Conneltsville to reside. Miss Grace Reynolds of Cumberland was the only out of town guest at the wedding.

Care and Responsibility.

THE responsibility attached to the preparing of a remedy for infants and children is undoubtedly greater than that imposed upon the manufacturer of remedies for adults whose system is sufficiently strong to counteract, for a time at least, any injurious drug. It is well to observe that Castoria is prepared today, as it has been for the past 40 years, under the personal supervision of Mr. Chas. H. Fletcher.

What have makers of imitations and substitutes at stake? What are their responsibilities? To whom are they answerable? They spring up today, scatter their nefarious wares broadcast, and disappear tomorrow.

Could each mother see the painstaking care with which the prescription for Fletcher's Castoria is prepared; could they read the innumerable testimonials from grateful mothers, they would never listen to the subtle pleadings and false arguments of those who would offer an imitation of, or substitute for, the tried and true Fletcher's Castoria.

Fletcher's
CASTORIA

A Word About Truth.

"Great is Truth, and mighty above all things." So says the Old Testament, yet it is equally true to-day. Truth shows no favors, fears no enemies.

From the inception of Fletcher's Castoria, Truth has been the watchword, and to the conscientious adherence to this motto in the preparation of Fletcher's Castoria as well as in its advertising is due the secret of its popular demand.

All imitations, all substitutes, all just-as-good preparations lack the element of Truth, lack the righteousness of being, lack all semblance even in the words of those who would deceive.

And you, Mothers, Mothers with the fate of the World in your hands, can you be deceived? Certainly not.

Fletcher's Castoria is prepared for Infants and Children. It is distinctly a remedy for the little ones. The BABY'S need for a medicine to take the place of Castor Oil, Paregoric and Soothing Syrup was the sole thought that led to its discovery. Never try to correct BABY'S troubles with a medicine that you would use for yourself.

MOTHERS SHOULD READ THE BOOKLET THAT IS AROUND EVERY BOTTLE OF FLETCHER'S CASTORIA.

NO SIDE-STEPPING OR SLACKING
NOW.

Every courageous American will approve the firm attitude taken by Attorney General Palmer in announcing the determination of the government to wipe out the organized outlaws which has found expression in attempts to terrorize and intimidate government and state officials through bombing their places of residence.
These bold outrages will not serve the purpose of the cowardly perpetrators but they will stir the government to an activity that will not end short of a complete suppression of this lawless element.

"The outrages indicate nothing but the lawless attempt of an anarchistic element in the population to terrorize the country and thus stay the hand of the government," said Attorney General Palmer in discussing the concerted attacks that were made Monday night. "This they have utterly failed to do. These attacks by bombthrowers will only increase and extend the activities of our crime-detecting forces. We are determined now, as heretofore, that organized crime directed against organized government in this country shall be stopped."

ABOLISHING GRADE CROSSINGS.

The word comes from Harrisburg that more grade crossings will be ordered abolished this year in Pennsylvania than ever known in any preceding twelve-month. The Public Service Commission has been engaged in a study of this problem for some time and appears to have come to the conclusion that these dangers to travelers must be eliminated.

This study was in progress when the war broke out and was in part discontinued during our participation in the fighting overseas. Now that peace conditions are being restored, and the State Highway Department having made record of the dangerous crossings on the main traveled highways, consideration of complaints by the Public Service Commission will proceed more systematically and more vigorously.

Within the past month orders have been issued for the abolition of a dozen or more crossings, everyone on main highways forming a part of the improved road system of the state.
In each case the order provides for the appointment of the cost between the railroad, the state, the counties, and the townships in which the crossings are located, this principle of division of cost having been adopted by the Public Service Commission some time ago.

The Legislature will be asked to provide a considerable sum to meet the state's share of the cost of eliminating these crossings, as there will be an increased demand in this direction before the next session. Two years hence, in the case of the railroad arrangement will have to be made with the Railroad Administration to have the cost of the railroad's share charged to capital account. In the case of counties, townships and municipalities the authorities will be obliged to finance the local share.

This is one aspect of the crossing problem that will have to be considered in connection with Connellsville's petition with respect to the crossings within the city limits. The Public Service Commission is plainly of the opinion that grade crossings are a grave menace to the safety of traveling public and must be removed as speedily as circumstances will permit. Evidently those crossings which are most dangerous, or those about which convincing evidence of their dangerous character is presented to the commission, are to be removed first. If Connellsville makes a strong case before the commission there appears to be no reasonable doubt but that an order of removal will in due course be issued.

In that case the city will have to pay its share of the cost, but better far to do that than to have the life of another person forfeited as the penalty of our neglect or failure to press the issue. In case the railroad companies are merely required to erect safety gates or place watchmen on duty that will be without expense to the city. Better will it be for the railroads to bear this expense than to assume the responsibility that arises from failure to properly safeguard the public from an easily preventable danger.

If Pittsburghers are so insistent upon a parade, and have a desire to know just what it means these torrid days, why not change the order by giving the boys of the 86th Division a place in the grand parade while the parade-boosting heroes march in review?

The Boy Scouts' camp is coming nearer, both in point of time and realization.

The American delegation of experts at the peace conference seems to have lacked the presence of an expert plumber. How otherwise could there have been a "leak" of the text of the treaty through unauthorized channels?

The 119th Band had sterner duties than simply providing entertainment, and its members performed one as faithfully and well as the other.

In naming the old high school building in honor of Miss Cameron, the dean of Connellsville's corps of teachers, the school board has paid a graceful and deserved tribute to a lifetime of faithful service.

The bomb-throwers are due to discover that there is a back-fire in every bomb they may throw. It may be slower in action than a fuse but the effect will be felt sooner or later.

Just Folks

Edgar A. Guest.

OLD-FASHIONED FLOWERS.

Old-fashioned flowers are like the folks of old that used to live 'em.
They seem contented just to live 'em.
They have God's sky above 'em.
They battle with the wind and rain and leave the winter's snow.
But just as soon as spring returns
they start right in to grow.
They're not like temperamental flowers that call for special care.
They give their blooms from day to day to all who wander there.

They'll keep the ugliest corners of the world bright and cheerful.
They'll grow in any sort of soil, and give the weeds a fight.
They're just like kindly people in their habits and their ways.
Who do their best for all mankind
without a word of praise.
You never have to coax 'em to bloom with them for blossoms sweet.
They're nodding at you all the time
an' dancin' round your feet.

Snappers never make a fuse, nor pinks nor hollyhocks.
You never have to pamper the petunias an' phlox.
They're waitin' for you in the yard
just like old friends an' true.
Read at any time o' day to give their charms to you.
So while the fancy blooms are fine, by every mortal test
I hold the good old-fashioned flowers are after all the best.

MOUNT PLEASANT SOLDIER HAS TWO VERY CLOSE CALLS

Once Shaving Brush Saves
Vincent Keller When Ball Strikes.

NEXT TIME IT IS A SHRAPNEL.

Kissile Strikes Arm and Gangrene Develops but Surgeons Save Him; Boys Set Fire to Garage; Girls at Kobacker Store Guests at Party.

Special to The Courier.

MOUNT PLEASANT, June 4.—Vincent Keller, returned with Company 3, brought home a bullet and shaving brush and piece of shrapnel, all that carry remembrance of how narrowly he escaped death. In the Argonne Keller carried with him in his shirt pocket a shaving brush with a hollow silver handle, a present before he left. A bullet struck the brush. The handle being hollow split, breaking the force of the bullet and leaving it imbedded in the lower part of the handle. Both the bullet and brush were kept by Keller.

It was in the Argonne where later a piece of shrapnel passed through Keller's left arm and gangrene set in. By careful treatment he got well. He has with him also the shrapnel.

Boys Start Fire.
Yesterday afternoon boys playing behind Peg's garage on North Church street set grease from automobiles being repaired on fire and for a few minutes the flames looked as though the building might be destroyed. A still alarm was sent the engine room. Ralph Nelson responded with the truck but just as he reached the scene of the fire Glenn Harrison, employed at the garage, extinguished the fire with the chemicals.

Kobacker Force Entertained.
Miss Marie Koehle, whose marriage to Martin Kearnes of Mammoth will be an event of June 12, entertained the Kobacker store girls and a few of her friends at her East End home last evening. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening spent.

Senior-Junior Party.
The senior-junior party of the Mount Pleasant Institute was held Monday evening. Members of both classes, the faculty and a few friends were present. A pleasant evening was spent and refreshments were served.

WIFE HELPED BY PLANT JUICE AFTER SHE GAVE UP HOPE

Sensational Testimonial Given by Pittsburg Man for the New Medicine.

One of the most recent statements made praising Plant Juice is that of Dr. B. J. Kaufman, who resides at No. 275 East street, North Side, Pittsburg, a popular machinist in the employ of a large local concern. He tells how his wife was helped of a severe case of stomach trouble after she had practically given up all hope, stating: "For years my wife has been troubled with her stomach; she could not digest the lightest kind of food and it would ferment and she was bloated with gas and in constant pain. She had no appetite, could not sleep at night and got so run down we did not know what to do for her, so she had tried so many medicines without any benefit whatever. Through the advice of a friend she started to take Plant Juice and it has put her stomach in its condition. She is able to sleep at night, has a good appetite and enjoys her meals. She has no more gas in her system. We certainly feel it a duty to endorse Plant Juice."

There are numerous symptoms of this trouble that Plant Juice can relieve. In fact any one of the following may denote affections of the stomach: indigestion, dyspepsia, bad breath, sick, throbbing headache, constipation, that tired feeling, night sweats, poor circulation, costiveness, a coated tongue or a poor complexion. Plant Juice is sold in Connelville at Roy Hetzel's Drug Store.—Adv.

At the Theatres

THE SOISSON.

"MORE TROUBLE"—A five-act production starring Frank Keenan, the celebrated actor, is being shown today. The story is one of interest and is said to provide Mr. Keenan with a stronger role than that of "The Crab," in which he made such a tremendous hit. He is supported by an excellent cast of prominent players. A selected comedy is also being shown. Friday and Saturday Harold Lockwood will appear in a production of much interest.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"THE FIRE FLINGERS"—Which serves to bring Rupert Julian back to the screen after a year's absence, is being shown today. The film version is an adaptation of William J. Neidig's serial story which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post and it might be said that the story is the outgrowth of almost 20 years of thought and development. The picture is a real thriller. Its exciting moments are strung along without any let-up and a terrific surprise just precedes the denouement. The plot is a shocker of interest. Julian exacts a dual role: he is at once Olwell, a wealthy publisher, and Hutton, an ex-convict just out of the penitentiary. One pitfall Hutton from his first appearance. His humility, his voiceless resignation in the face of unmerited misfortune, his determination to make a man of himself, and to see that this dream does likewise strikes a note of real pathos. Among those supporting Julian are June Novak, Fay Tincher, Clyde Fillmore and E. A. Warren. A selected comedy is also being shown. Tomorrow Shirley Mason, the charming screen star, will be seen in "The Unwritten Code."

Strong, Forceful Men With Plenty of Iron In Their Blood— These Are The Ones With The Power and Energy To Win

"Many a capable man or woman falls just short of winning because they don't back up their mentality with the physical strength and energy which come from having plenty of iron in the blood," says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital.

"Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man a physical and mental weakling, nervous, irritable, easily fatigued, but it utterly robs him of that virile force, that stamina and strength of will which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life. It may also transform a beautiful, sweet-tempered woman into one who is cross, nervous and irritable. To help make strong, keen, red-blooded Americans there is nothing in my experience which I have found so valuable as organic iron—Nuxated Iron." It often increases the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, run-down people in two weeks' time. Unlike the older, inorganic iron products it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. It is dispensed in this city by all good druggists.

NUXATED IRON

FANTASTIC FICTION ABOUT SENTENCES IMPOSED BY ARMY COURTS IN AMERICAN AREA

COBLENZ, May 3. (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Some fantastic fiction is published in German newspapers by writers from Frankfurt and Leipzig who have visited Coblenz and returned home to write whatever they may please about the American army. Many of the stories they tell are new to the officers of the Third army who count them as German propaganda.

One writer of a long article in the Leipzig paper dealing with life in Coblenz relates alleged instances of ridiculous sentences imposed upon Germans by the American army courts. In one case he says that the wife of a government official, "annoyed on the street by a drunken soldier exclaimed in her anger: 'If only all the Americans would go to the devil!'" The military court, he says, punished her for "this religious wish" by sentencing her to appear every morning for 30 days at the headquarters of the commanding officer and repeating to those present the phrase: "I am glad that you are still here, gentlemen, and it is my wish that you continue to stay here for a long while."

This is all news to the American officers. If any woman appears at headquarters every morning, the sentries on duty there have failed to notice it. It is part of their job to prevent trespassing by Germans at the main entrance of the Third army headquarters.

Another fictitious tale narrated by the Leipzig writer to arouse German dislike for Americans, deals with a case in which a woman, splashed by mud from an automobile ejaculated, "those dirty American automobiles."

For this the Leipzig Munchausen avers, a military court sentenced her to climb the fortress of Ehrenbreitstein daily at 5 A. M. for thirty days.

carrying a pail, scrubbing brush and scouring rag and to clean six American automobiles. Upon completion of this task, he asserted, she was required to walk back home similarly equipped.

Another fantastic tale told by the Leipzig journalist is of a sentence which he declares was imposed upon a hotel owner whose nerves could no longer stand the "wild music" produced by the American bands and who commented upon it unfavorably in punishment, the fiction writer claimed, the hotel man was sentenced to march daily for thirty days alongside the band and after its parade to tell its leader, "sir, your music pleases me to perfection."

American intelligence officers are endeavoring to ascertain through what channels the Leipzig correspondent obtained the alleged "information" while in Coblenz, particularly stories about the fines and sentences imposed upon women. Court records do not reveal any such cases.

An Enemy of Womanhood.
The complexion, digestion and almost the complete personality of woman are dependent upon health. Woman's ills are her great enemy, as they cause bad complexion, dark circles under the eyes, headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, dragging-down pains and the blues, and often totally unfit her for a companion. The great American remedy for such conditions is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which has been restoring three generations of ailing women to health, and may be relied upon with perfect confidence.—Adv.

JAPS BITTER OVER FAILURE TO SECURE AN EQUALITY PLANK

Cannot Understand by What Standard
First Class Power is Judged by Western Nations.

TOKIO, April 18. (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Failure of the Japanese delegates to secure the introduction of an "equality of races" clause in the League of Nations covenant caused deep disappointment throughout the Japanese nation and has led to a serious self-examination on the part of the Japanese people. The disappointment was all the more bitter because at first a dispatch came from Paris announcing the adoption of the racial clause.

Japanese who frankly discussed the problem said they could not understand on what standards Japan was judged to be a first class power. If it were merely because Japan was strong in a naval and military sense, this was not flattering to the Japanese amour-propre, who would much rather have it based on standards of civilization, capacity and culture. Yet small countries like Holland and Belgium, they said are placed on a footing equal with the United States, France and England.

"We are keenly disappointed," wrote the editor of one paper. "It is as if we had tumbled from a very high precipice. We must look into our hearts, examine ourselves rigidly and see why we are not permitted to join the other nations of the world on a footing of real equality."

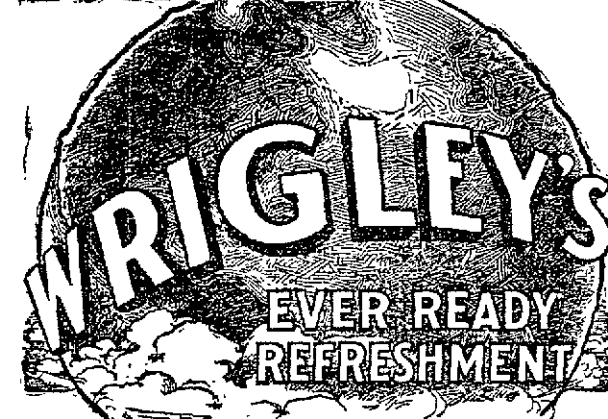

The Osaka Mainichi said: "The adoption of the American amendment for the Monroe Doctrine and the failure of the racial amendment affords a most glaring contrast as between a great success for the United States and a great failure for Japan."

The Tokio Asahi says, "part of the blame should be placed at the door of European and American statesmen whose political conscience has been so befuddled that they do not understand or respect the principle of justice and humanity except when it is politically used to their advantage."

MRS. WM. BANFER, OF UNIONTOWN, MUCH IMPROVED

Fast Recovering From Flu After-Effects, Thanks to Nerv-Worth.

Every reader in whose system the ailments which came in the wake of influenza should take careful notice of the following remarkable signed statement, made at Uniontown a few days ago. In source and character, Mrs. Banfer's report is a most comforting message to fellow-sufferers: Guyton's Drug Store—I had a terrible case of the "flu" which left me in a very nervous and run-down condition. I was in the hands of a doctor but did not seem to respond to his treatment. I would feel a sickness in my stomach after eating. My sleep was disturbed and I did not get rest or gain strength. I purchased a bottle of Nerv-Worth from you and took it as directed and can truthfully say that I am no longer nervous. No sickness after eating, and I sleep soundly all night and have regained my wanted health and strength. I recommend Nerv-Worth to all.

CARNIVAL POPULAR

Thousands Visit Show on the West Side and Enjoy It.

Thousands visited the grounds of the World at Home Shows on Seventh street, West Side, last night. The merry-go-round, ferris wheel and whip were sources of delight and the cause of many happy shouts from the kiddies. One of the most popular places on the lot was the Big Eight Show, featuring Blue-Bluey, who is reputed to be the smallest comedian alive. He is known as the "Monkey Man." Another feature in this show is the two-headed baby. If physicians will present themselves at the money boy they will be allowed to inspect this phenomena free of charge. Heaney, the Scotch Highland Band is not added attraction to the show.

Then comes the show opposite, which runs as its feature bill "the girl with a million eyes." This girl is a mind reader who baffles all efforts to discover her "method." Six years ago she appeared before President Roosevelt, who told her that she had made him think.

The show that is steadily gaining in popularity with the people is the Plantation Show in which several of the funniest negro comedians that ever appeared on a stage crack the latest jokes. Their singing and dancing is beyond describing.

DICE of DESTINY

By
Jackson Gregory

"And De la Guerra was never to be taken from the house?"
"No. It seemed safer this way."
"There was every hazard in it."
"Simply because you happened to be at the rancho," returned Dempton with a little flash of bitterness. "Had there been only the senorita, it would have been easy to have worked on her for her grandfather."

"And Torre?"
"Killed a man a month ago in San Antonio—is running away from the jailhouse. With the money he expected to make from this he could buy the alliance of the one man who can identify him as the murderer. It was his only chance."

"Juarez?"
"Is actually a rebel captain. Torre was to give him his share. Then Torre was to have a commission in the rebel army. He looked to distinguished favors when the rebels fought their way into power. Now—"

"Now what?"
"Now, if he goes into Mexico the rebels will shoot him as a traitor. That was another chance he was taking. He was to give five thousand dollars to the cause. For that they let him have Juarez and the other men. He was to give his life if he lied to them. If he tricked them or—if he failed. He could never get across the border without their spies finding him."

Then Gaucha returned with word that everything was ready. Vidal, at

He Turned a Corner.

Stanway's command, bound Dempton squarely once more, head and foot, and pressed him to the bed as one might toss a sack of wheat. The men had kicked off their shoes and coats, and stood eager and expectant.

"Stanway, his revolver in his right hand, pressed with the left thumb upon the spot in the paneling where another thumb had pressed."

"There was a little click, and the panel slid back into the wall, showing a narrow doorway, a narrow passageway beyond. There were candles burning there, their steady flames casting a clear, yellow light."

"Each man kept three feet behind the man in front of him," whispered Stanway. "We must have room. Vidal, Gaucha, come just behind me."

He stepped through the door into the two-foot wide hallway, which ran along inside the wall, its trend eastward and downward. There were no steps, but the slant led quickly under the foundations of the great adobe building.

Stanway pushed the first candle set into a niche in the rough wood wall. Already he felt that he must be below the level of the floor when he came to the second candle. Here the flame was less steady, a little breath of air playing with it.

He turned a corner, the hallway opened up suddenly into a small, rough-walled room some eight or ten feet square.

Across the room was a heavy barred door; in the center of the floor was a couch, and on the couch a man was lying upon his back, his hands clasped behind his head, a cigarette between his lips.

Stanway was in the room, noiseless in his stockinged feet. Vidal at his side. Gaucha was entering when the man heard, turned quickly, and saw them. He sprang to his feet.

But the cry rising to his lips was choked back in his throat by the hard hands of the rancher. The struggle ended almost as soon as it began.

But some sound of the brief scuffle must have penetrated to the other side of the oak door. Before the rest of the vaqueros could crowd into the little room the door had been jerked open, a dark, bearded face showed at the crack.

There was a startled curse, the door slammed shut, and there was the sound of other bars lifted across it upon the other side.

"You axes!" shouted Stanway, springing to one side to make room. "Vidal, you take care. Get it down, quick!"

But, even to the attack of the great arms of Vidal and another of the cowboys, the great thick door stood defiant as the swift seconds fled by. Then he other side came the sound of quick, snapping voices, of scurrying feet, the sound of a cry which tangled through Stanway's blood and sent Vidal with redoubled vigor to the onslaught on the door.

At last the door fell. Stanway and Vidal, side by side, leaped through. There was another hall, wider than the first, shorter. At the end of the hall another door, studded with nails, barred upon the farther side.

Evidently there had been a second guard here, evidently in the next room were the prisoners.

"De la Guerra!" shouted Stanway.

"Teresa!"

There was no answer, no sound.

"Smash in the door!" he yelled. "Quick! Gaucha, go upstairs. Tell them what has happened. Let them watch out. Order the first man who appears to be shot if he makes a move toward a gun or to escape. Run, Gaucha!"

Before Gaucha had turned to obey, before Stanway's echoing words sank into silence, there came from beyond the door an exclamation of terror, a sudden cry, and the reverberating crack of a revolver.

Then brief silence again for a moment which seemed long, and the blows of two axes, ripping and tearing at the oak planks of the door.

CHAPTER XII.

The Senor Again.

With splinters flying, shocked upon its heavy hinges, the great oak door was open. Stanway slipped through; Vidal, his deep chest panting from his herculean labor, ax still gripped in an enormous hand, came after him, his fellows crowding after them.

A large room this time, some thirty feet square, furnished well; blankets, scattered morsels of bread and meat, showing that here Torre's men had been. A glance showed that the room was empty of human occupants; a second glance found one man lying close to the wall, limp and inert, a red stain upon his breast.

Stanway ran to him, stooped, stood straight with a little grunt of satisfaction. It was not any one of the De la Guerra household.

"Shot accidentally by one of his fellows," he muttered. "Or else De la Guerra has got his hands on a revolver!"

A door at the far side of the room stood open; a candle still burned brightly upon a little stand. There had been no time lost in leaving.

"I hear men running yonder!" Vidal's big finger pointed through the open door. "Come, compadres!"

They ran with him, crowding together.

Again there was a hallway, this one far down under the main floor and so wide that three men might pass abreast through it. There came a sharp turn, the footsteps were louder, men were running toward them. And then, as several men shot into view:

"Stop!" cried Stanway, loudly, his hand knocking Vidal's weapon upward. "It is Gaucha and his men!"

"Where are they?" cried Gaucha, excitedly. "The master? The senorita? You did not find them?"

"You did not meet them?" in a sharp cry from the rancher.

"We met no one!" Gaucha answered, a look of wonder in his eyes.

"Then there is another door. They have fooled us. Come! They can't get out of the house."

They turned, rushing back toward the room they had just quitted. And at the instant Stanway plunged back through the doorway he knew where were these men of Torre's.

For he heard Torre's voice shouting loudly just above his head where he had already judged the drawing room must be; he knew that through some other passageway the men they had thought to trap had made their way there, and he remembered that his own orders had been for one man only to watch over the bound Torre and Juarez.

"Torre! Castro!" Torre was calling, his tones ringing out clear, the tones of command, calling for haste, for swift obedience. "There is one man here only. Kill him! Ah!"

There was the crack of a revolver, a cry, the sound of a body falling.

"Now!" and again Torre's voice rang triumphant. "Cut these damned ropes, Castro! You others free Juarez. Watch the doors. Guard the passageway. By the lord of hell, we'll win this game yet!"

"They are too many," panted a dissenting voice. We—

"Coward and fool!" cried Torre's echoing voice. "Give me that gun. Now, listen. I have found where the De la Guerra bunch is! It's just yonder in the old man's bedroom. It's full of gold, compadres. And then—watch the doors, amigos! Then cross the border with our pockets full!"

There came answering shouts, the noise of heavy furniture being dragged across the floor and piled at the doors, Torre's voice giving commands.

"But where is the master?" a vaquero whispered anxiously. "They have killed him!"

"And the senorita?" cried Gaucha.

CLEVELAND INDIANS PROUD OF CATCHERS STEVE O'NEILL, NUNAMAKER AND THOMAS

The Cleveland Indians believe they have the best backstopping lineup in either of the major leagues. The trio are Les Nunamaker, who was obtained from St. Louis for Josh Billings; Steve O'Neill and Chet Thomas.

Nunamaker is regarded as a steady player, good behind the bat and still better with the bat. O'Neill is regarded as the most dependable catcher in the game today, always on the steady grind, never slumping into an "off day." Chet Thomas, who came to the Indians about the middle of last season overweight and chunky, is showing off in fine style and his mates are betting on big things from him this season.

HIGH PRAISE FOR BASEBALL

Admiral Plunkett Says Players Brought Splendid Fighting Spirit and Helped Athletics.

Baseball players in the navy made a hit with Rear Admiral C. P. Plunkett, according to a letter which he sent to Colonel Ruppert of the Yankees. The admiral says: "Aside from being an ardent fan and a former player myself we were blessed in this war with some of our fraternity. They brought us a splendid fighting spirit, and I believe imbued some of the navy spirit. They helped us in every possible way, especially with our athletics, which, as you know, is a very essential part in fitting a man physically to exert his utmost at all times. I hope that the future holds much in store for great national sport and that you and your club will have the success which you so richly deserve."

SCOTT PERRY SHY AS HITTER

In Recent Game With Yankees Athletic Pitcher Struck Out Five Times—Good as Hurler.

Scott Perry may be a great pitcher, but as a batter, oh my! In the game of April 23 he struck out five times. Jack Quinn fanned him in the second, fifth and seventh innings and Bob Shawkey made him cut the air in the ninth and twelfth, though his effort in the final inning did nip the ball, resulting in a foul tip that was caught by Reel.

If Earl Kelsner makes good on the White Sox Kid Gleason may have an overseas battery in a game before long—Kelsner and Jenkins.

The Chicago White Sox look pretty good this spring and many believe they will give the Red Sox a hot fight all the way for the final honors.
